LETTER OF SUPPORT

- Reference: Local Government Administration Law, Number 03/NAL Dated 21/10/2003.
- Reference the MoUs between the MIA Corporation and Taoy, Samouoy, Vapi and Salavane Districts of Salavane Province.

We are pleased to ensure our full support for the Public Private Partnership (PPP) program of the MIA Corporation for sustainable human and natural resources development for sustainable economic development in Salavane Province. In this respect, as a follow-up of the MoUs of the Districts, more detailed studies and planning workshops will be conducted jointly by the MIA Corporation and concerned provincial and district authorities and local people to develop a "Master Plan" for specific business plans and projects for sustainable human and natural resources development for sustainable economic development in the allocated areas of these districts under this PPP program. The components of these studies and Master Plan are as follows:

- 1) Sustainable Development of Human Resources in local communities through: basic human needs fulfillment (food security, health, education, clean water, environmental sanitation, etc.); training and education for technology and skill development; and, other components for sustainable human resources development.
- 2) Sustainable Development of Natural Resources through: sustainable agroforestry-based business development; increased livestock production; investment and credit systems development; effective processing plants and marketing and marketing systems development; development of other related businesses including related irrigation-cum-hydropower generation, sustainable energy such as solar/wind energies, mining, and construction; establishment of an effective "value chain" system for developing and enhancing necessary wealth for local community livelihoods development; and, other components for sustainable natural resources development.

The Provincial Government of Salavane Province and the MIA Corporation will collaborate and work together to develop effective partnerships with concerned public and private parties (including concerned government and international agencies, private companies, banks, investors and community development partners) and communities for the success of this PPP program, and the areas will be permitted by Government of Lao PDR.
